

British Section – OIB (International Option at the Baccalaureate)

The International British Section at Notre-Dame du Grandchamp prepares the students to the French Baccalaureate with the British option. This option is co-organized and examined by the University of Cambridge International Examinations and the French Ministry of Education.

Teachers are all qualified native English speakers.

Students are native English speakers. French students having lived and been educated in an English-speaking country for several years may also be admitted.

Admission: Application has to be sent early January, by following the instructions posted on the main site. Students whose application has been selected will take a writing test.
